Barkha, the graded reading series is developed for students of Grade I and II. The objective of the series is to provide opportunity to young children to engage with books and read meaningfully. Gradation across levels has been achieved by variation in syntax, number of words and complexity of sub-plots. Barkha facilitates reading for pleasure in children and helps them become fluent readers. Children find everyday events as interesting as stories; hence, all the stories of Barkha are based on their daily life experiences. The stories of Barkha are spread out in four levels and five themes— (i) Relationships; (ii) Birds-Animals; (iii) Musical Instruments, Games and Toys; (iv) Around us and (v) Food. Another objective of the reading series is to provide plenty of books to children. It also helps in cognitive development of children in all curricular domains.

It is suggested that Barkha books be kept at a place in the classroom where children have easy access.

A Ball of Wool

Nani

Munmun

One day, my Nani was knitting a sweater in the Sun. She had a red ball of wool.

Nani was knitting a sweater sitting in the courtyard. The ball of wool was in her lap.

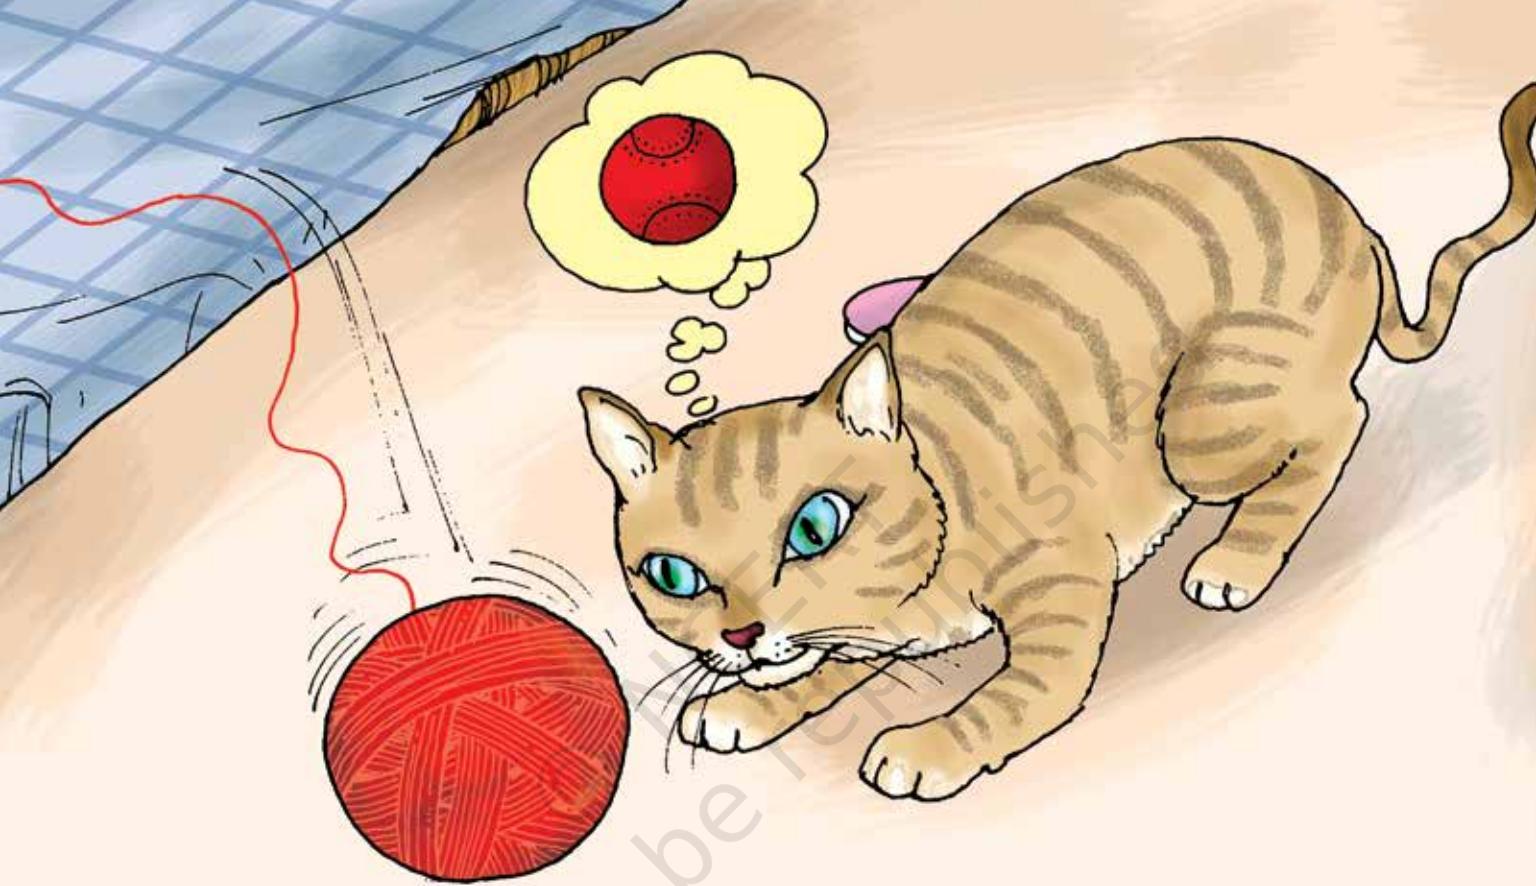

Munmun was sitting near Nani.
She was staring at the ball of wool.

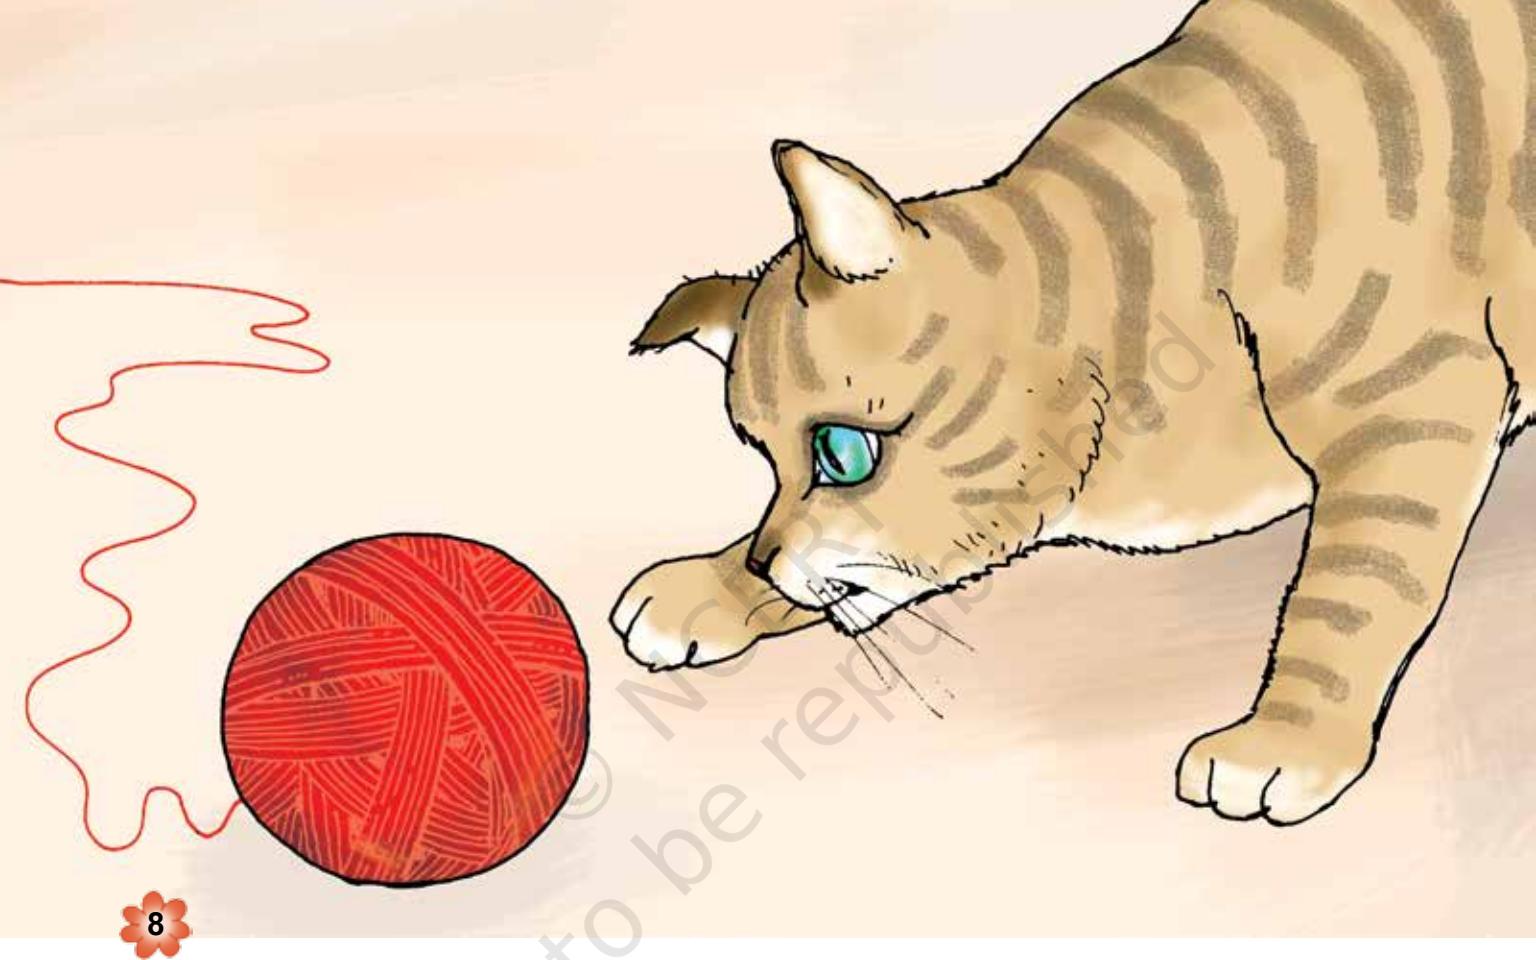

The ball was moving slowly.
Munmun also moved her head slowly.

Nani fell asleep while knitting.
The ball rolled down.

The wool rolled down to Munmun.
Munmun thought it was a ball.

Munmun started playing with the ball of wool.
She has fun playing with a ball.

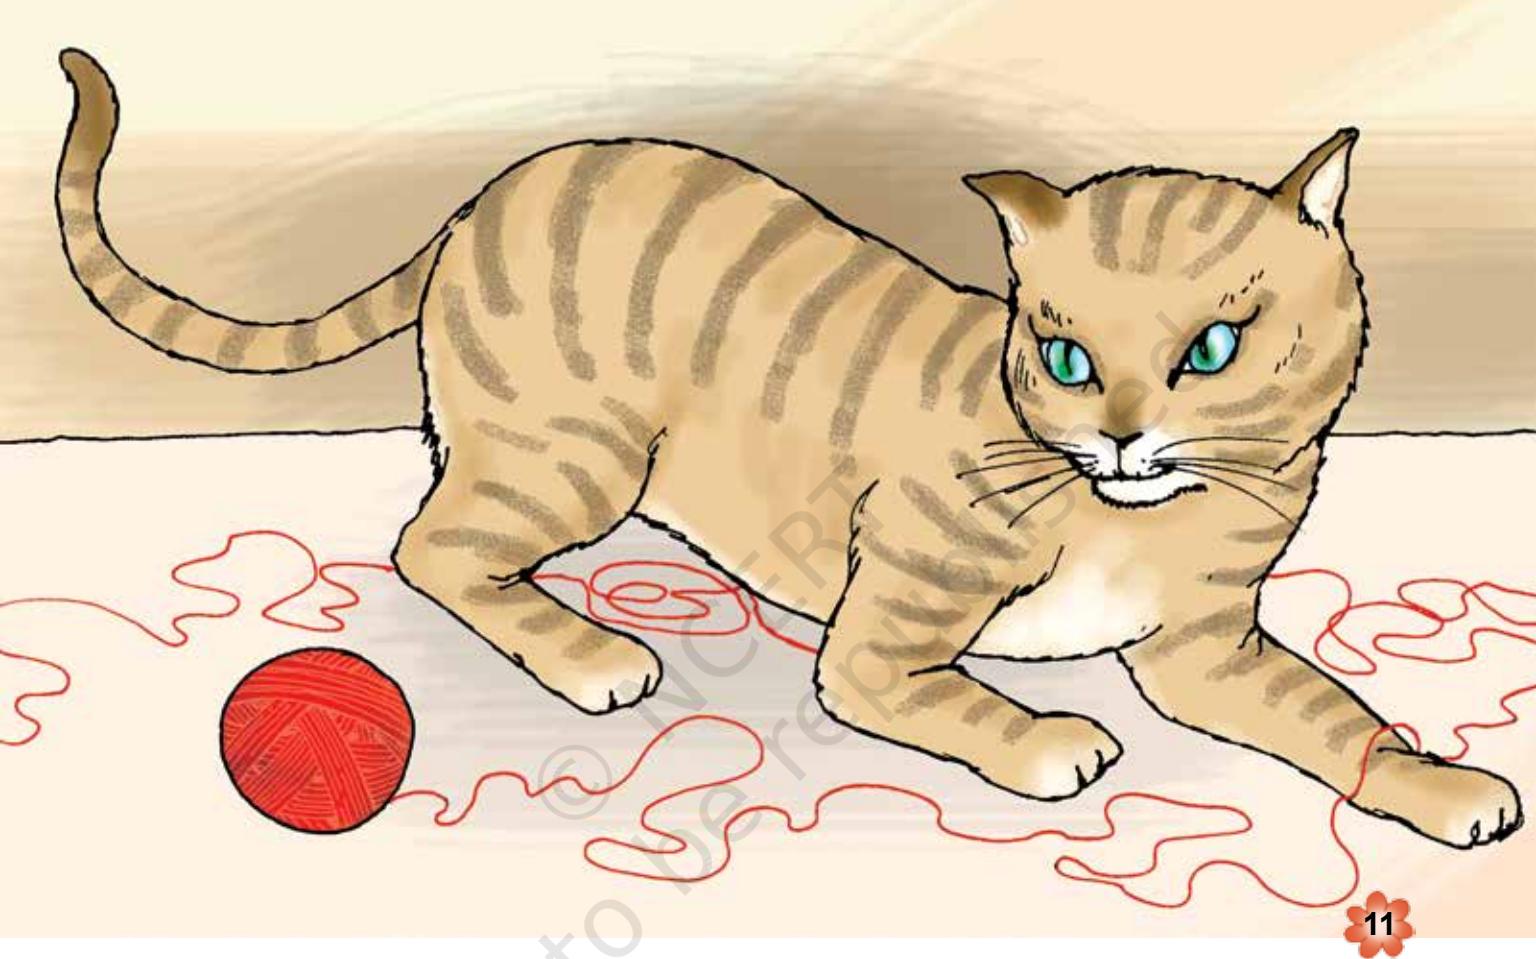

The ball of wool rolled here and there.
Munmun began to chase it.

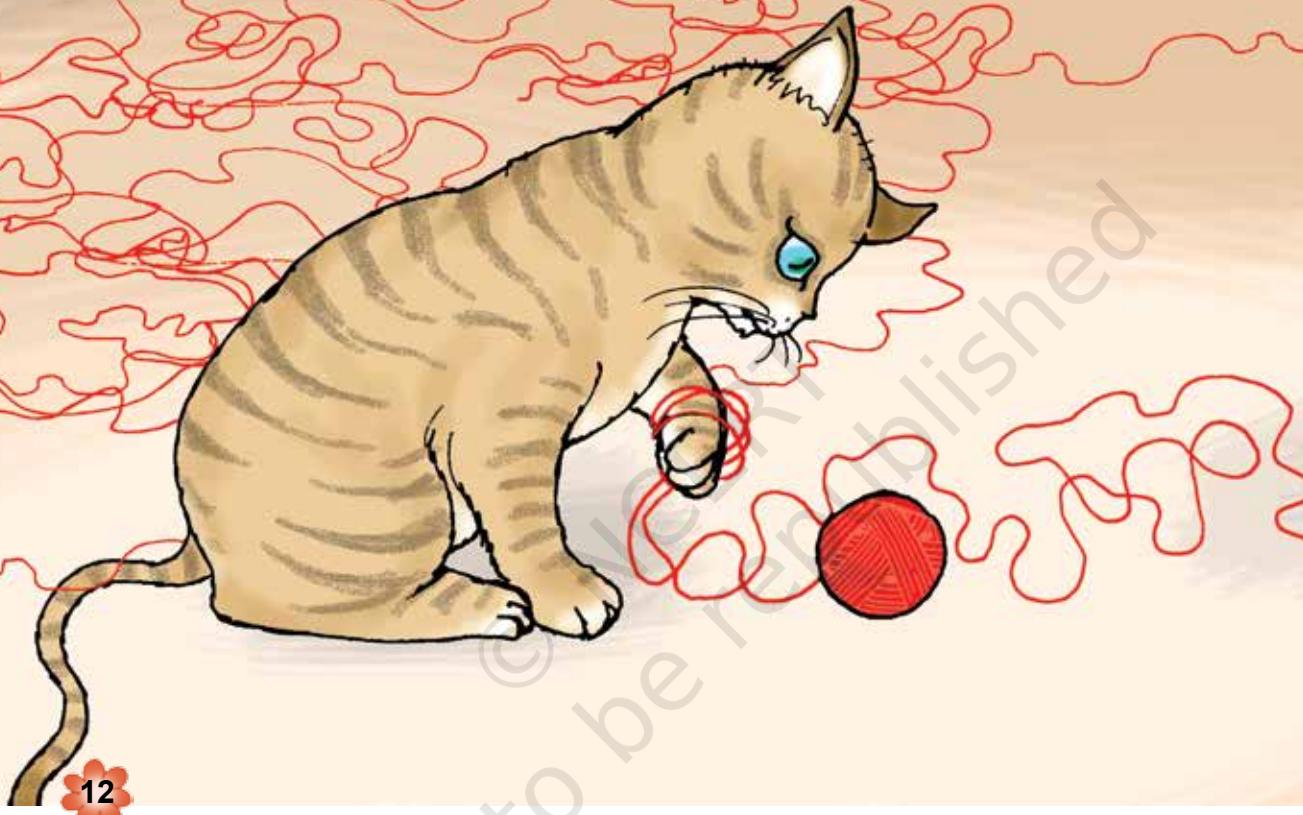

10

The ball of wool started to become smaller.
Munmun kept running after it.

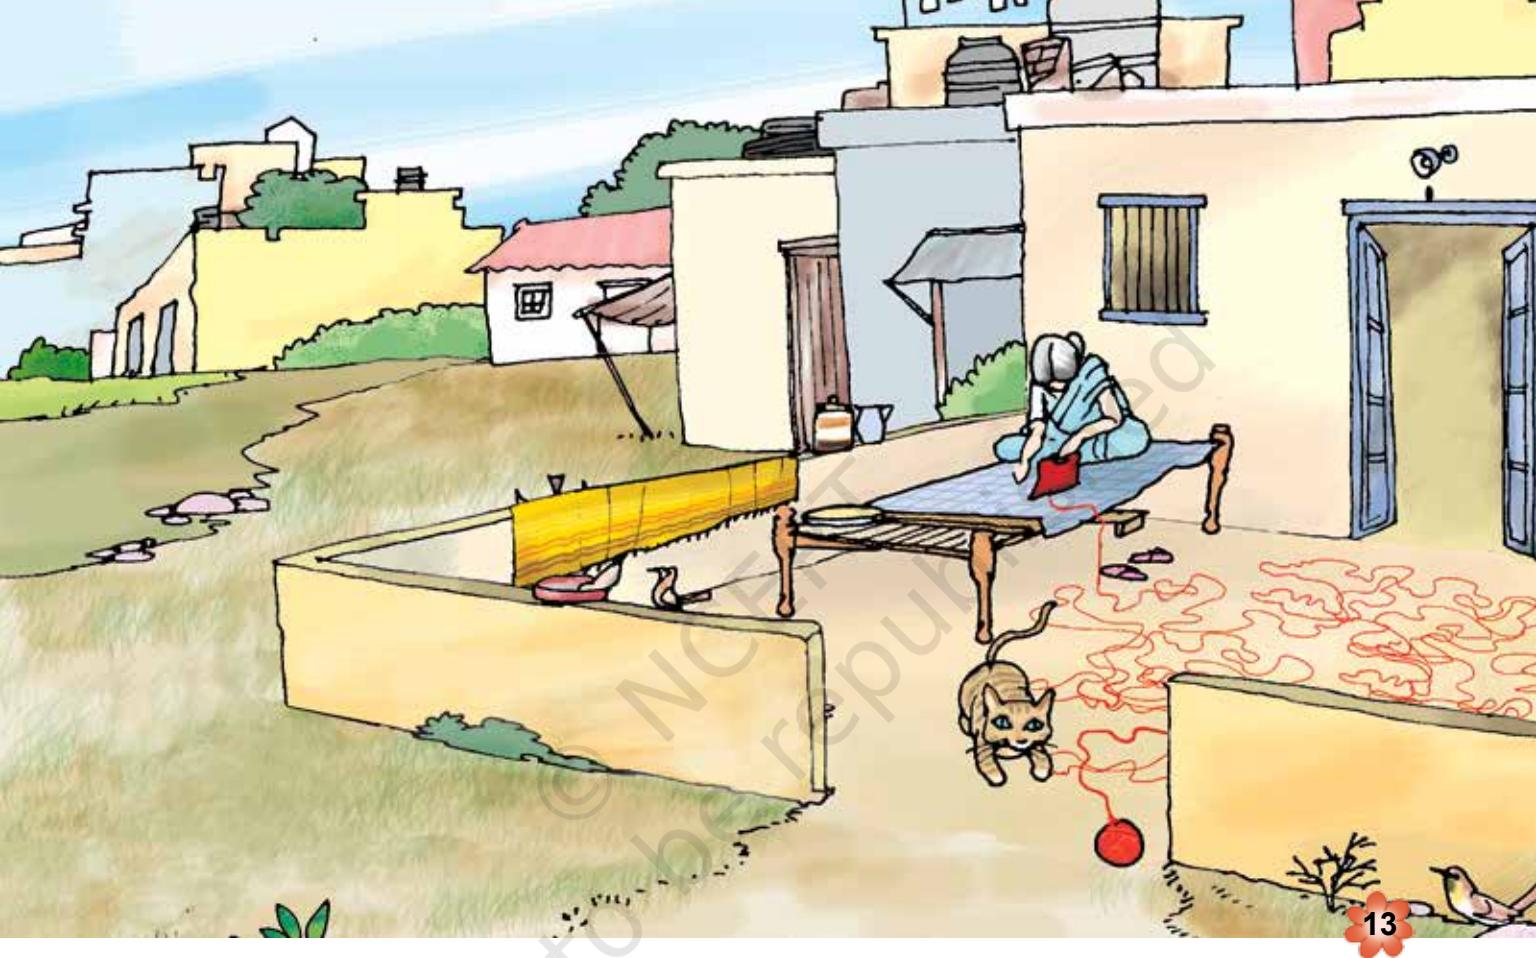

11

The ball of wool kept unrolling.
It kept on unrolling.

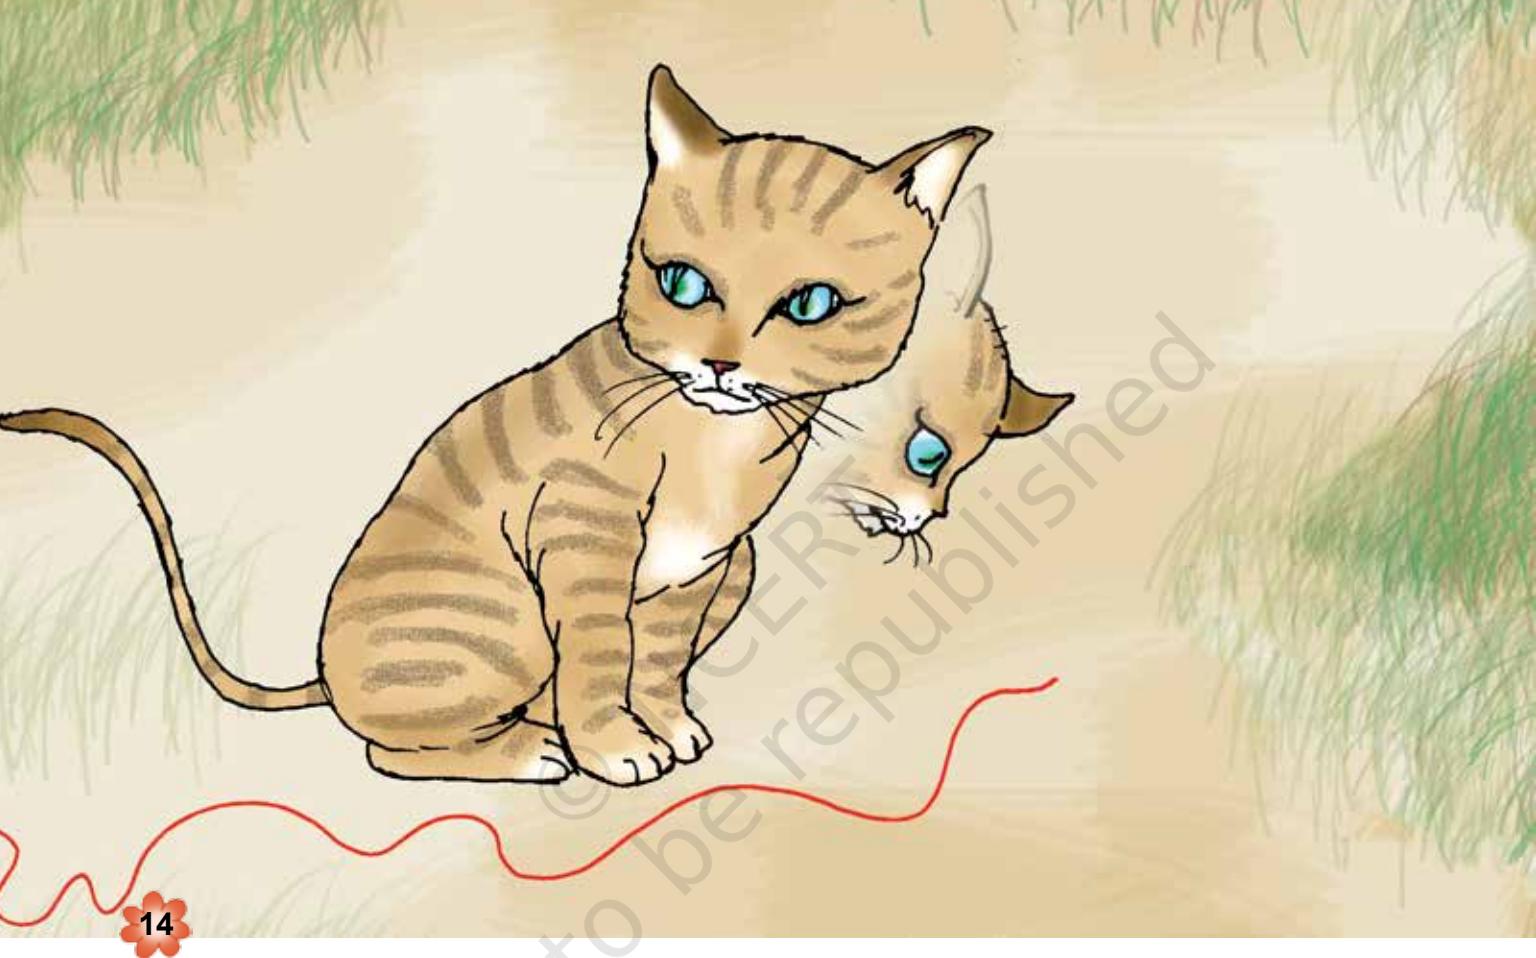

12

A bit of wool got entangled in Munmun's paw.
Munmun took it out from her paw.

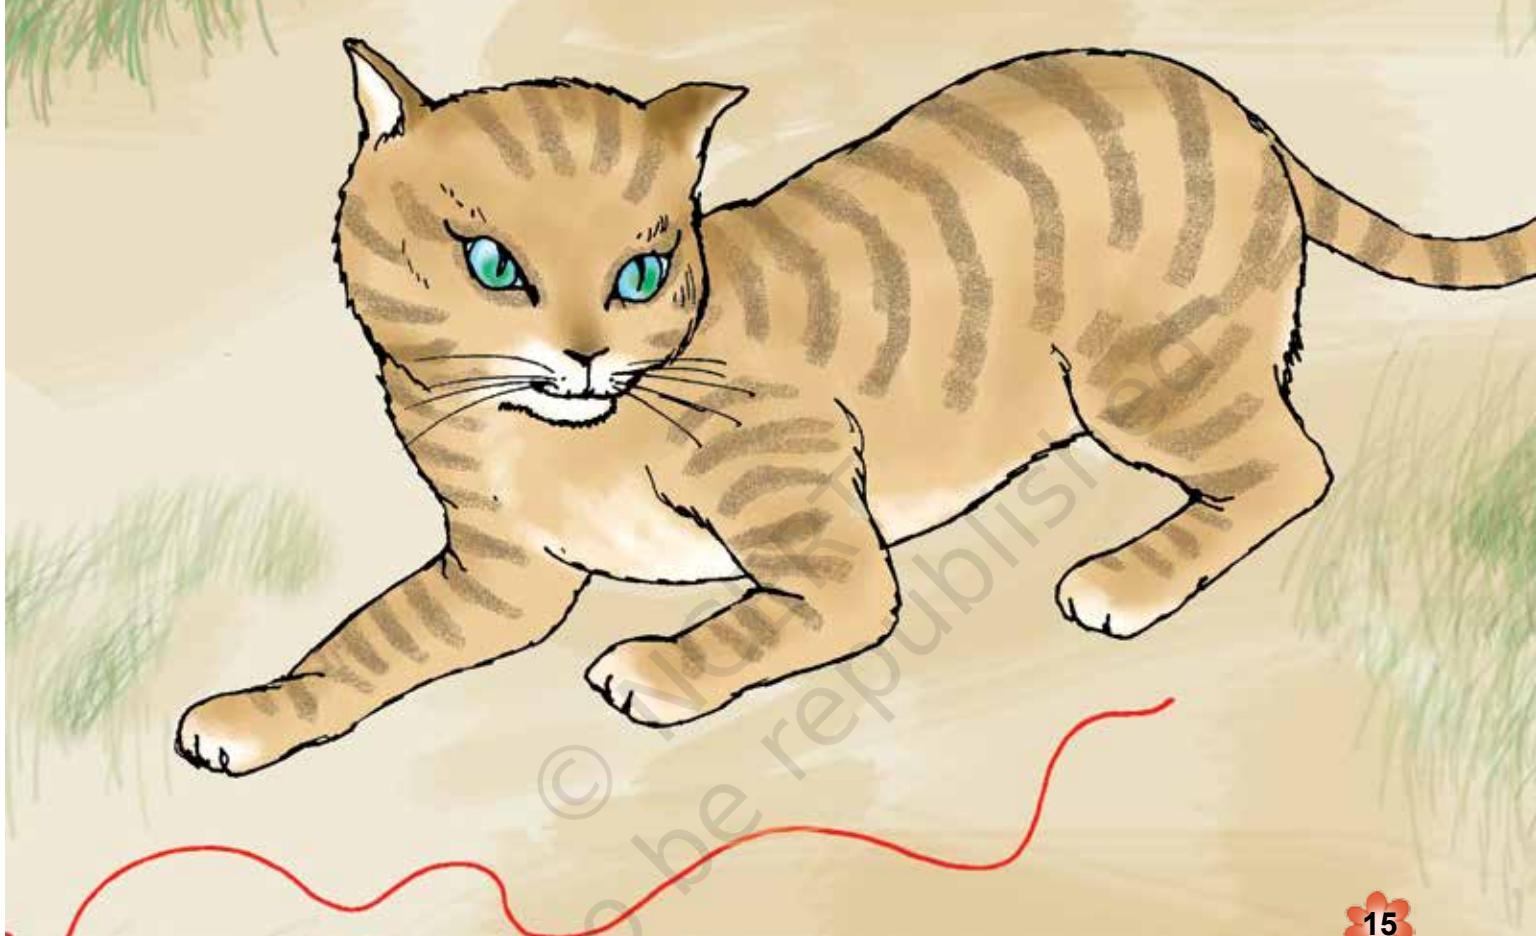

Now only a small ball of wool remained.
Munmun was unable to catch it.

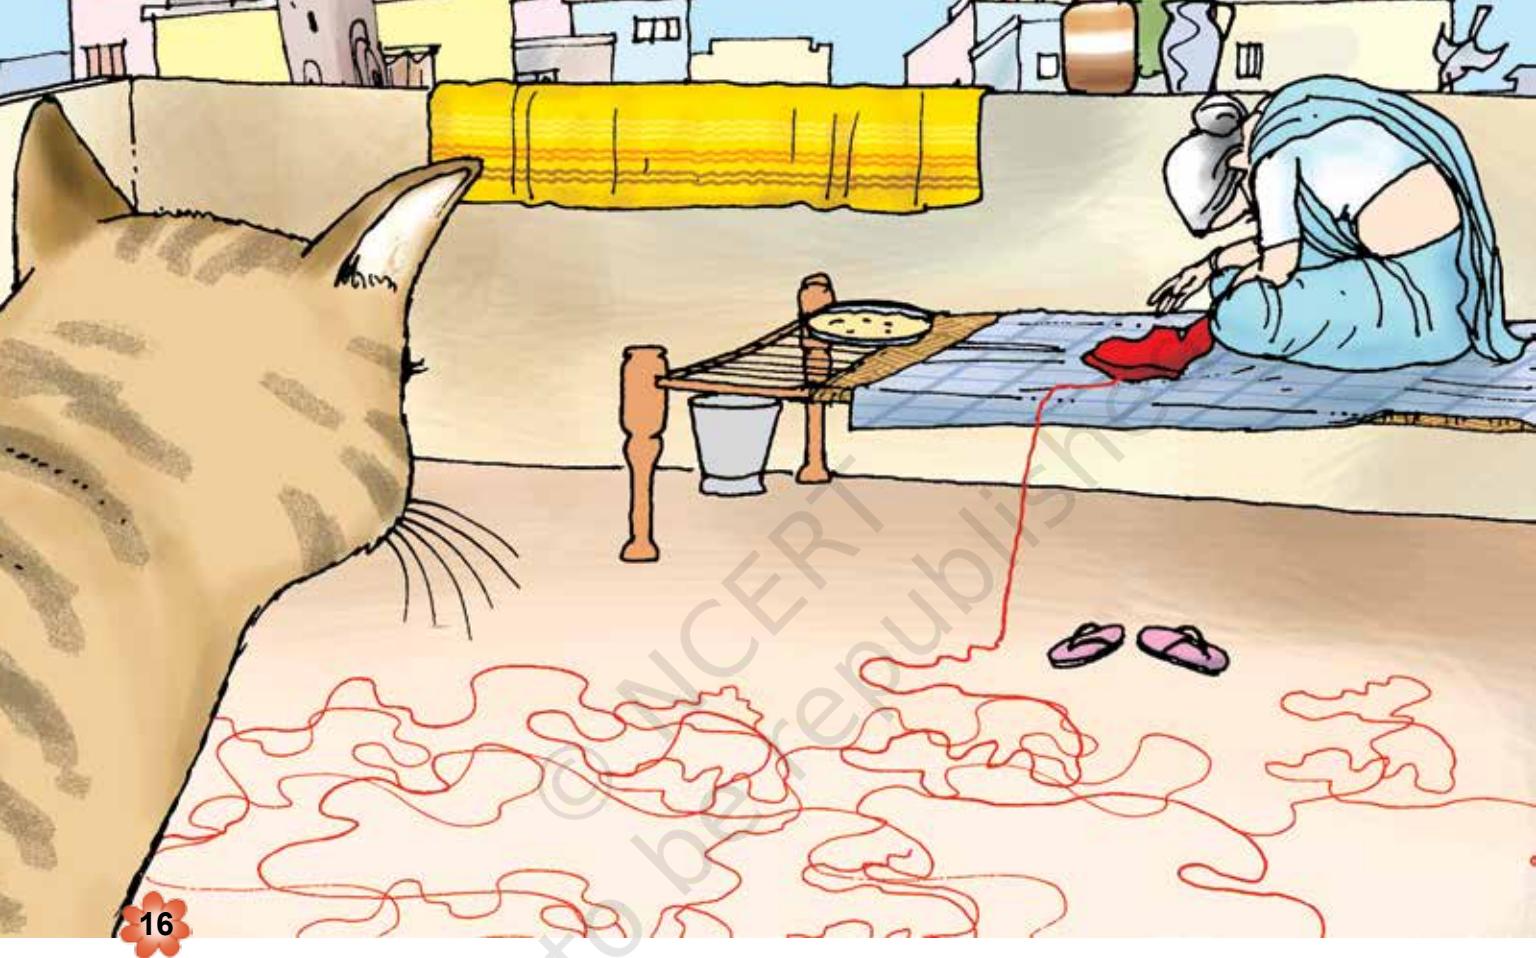

14

Once it completely unrolled, the ball vanished.
Munmun kept looking for the ball anxiously.

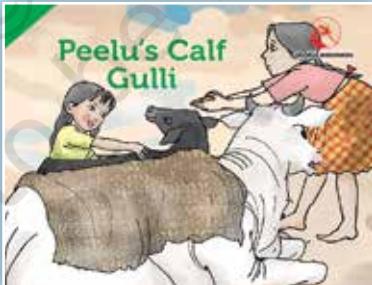

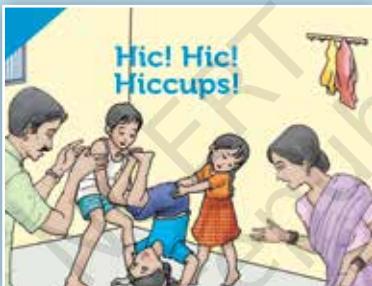

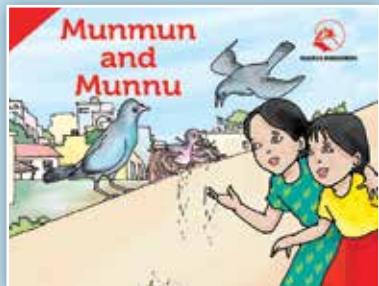

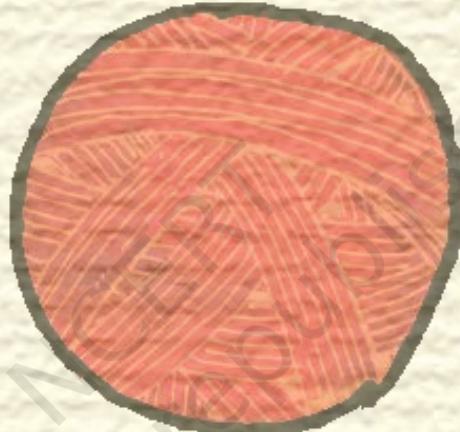

Munmun looked for it behind her, then in front.
But she could not find the ball.

Munmun ran back to Nani.
Nani was still fast asleep.
